CREW welcomes keynote speaker Qualls, guests

CREW 2009 Midwest Regional Conference kickoff luncheon on April 24

[CINCINNATI, Ohio ~ April 3, 2009] For the biggest event in its 15-year history, CREW of Greater Cincinnati turned to one of the most recognized women in Cincinnati business and politics for the keynote address at “Urban Renaissance,” the CREW 2009 Midwest Regional Conference: former Cincinnati Mayor Roxanne Qualls, now serving on Cincinnati City Council.

Qualls will kick off the conference at the Friday luncheon on April 24, scheduled from 12:00 - 1:30 p.m. in the Continental Room at the Cincinnati Hilton Netherland Plaza. The conference runs April 23-25 and is accepting early registration through April 7 at www.CREWCincinnati09.com.

“The CREW organization and its members have proven themselves to be a dynamic partner in the growth of our city and region,” Ms. Qualls said. “I look forward to reconnecting with CREW and all my CREW friends at the Cincinnati conference, and invite them to witness our own ‘urban renaissance.’ ”

Ms. Qualls will be introduced by Mr. Doug Bolton, Publisher of the Cincinnati Business Courier, the Official Media Sponsor of the conference.

“We are honored to have Roxanne kick off the conference,” said Ms. Janet Rullman, President-Elect of CREW of Greater Cincinnati (www.CREWCincinnati.org) celebrating its 15th anniversary in style. “Roxanne Qualls represents what CREW is all about: high-performing, working women of influence collaborating amidst the professional ranks to help ourselves, each other and the industry.”

For a full agenda and the most recent information on speakers, as well as online registration and sponsorship information, please visit the official conference website at www.CREWCincinnati09.com. For media inquiries, please contact Ms. Rullman at jrullman@gowestech.com or (513) 353-0700.
